The Presbyterian Church in Canada encourages those considering a gift to the church to seek professional legal and financial advice before deciding on a course of action. Donors should be aware that the needs and priorities of the church will change over time. The Presbyterian Church in Canada reserves the right to shift how some gifts are used to better serve the area of ministry designated by donors.

 The Presbyterian Church in Canada

Leave a Legacy

The Mission Priority Funds were established to grow the mission dreams of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Discover how you can turn your assets into a gift that will change lives today and grow the mission of the church for generations to come.

Mission Priority Funds

1. Sustaining Pastoral Excellence

Support professional church workers experiencing the stresses of pastoral ministry in a rapidly changing world.

2. Growing Churches

Offer strategic support to presbyteries starting congregations using new models of church planting.

3. Creative Ministry with Children and Youth

Provide funds to start and expand creative ministries that nurture faith in children and youth.

4. Native Ministries Endowment

Support the PCC's ongoing, long-term ministry with and for Indigenous people.

5. Healing and Reconciliation

Help live out the calls to action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and build relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous people.

6. Living Links Missionary Endowment

Ensure ongoing support for international mission staff working with our partner churches and agencies around the world.

7. Mission Connections

Facilitate short-term mission trips and exchanges between congregations and mission partners.

8. Priorities for Mission

Can't decide which fund to support? The Priorities for Mission fund allocates 10% of its total value each year into any of the LMA's Mission Priority Funds, according to the areas of greatest need.
